

About the authors

Mgr. Ing. Lucie Formanová, Ph.D.

Lucie Formanová graduated at the Faculty of Business and Economics of Mendel University in Brno, the doctoral study programme in Finance. Since 2014, she has been working at the Department of Accounting and Taxes (currently Department of Finance and Accounting), first as a doctoral student and then as an Assistant Professor. Since the beginning of her pedagogical career, she has been teaching subjects focussing on auditing, accounting, and taxation issues. In addition to pedagogical activities, she is also involved in scientific activities in the field of taxes, accounting, and auditing. In 2022, she established the nationwide competition in accounting for high school students called as “Zaúčtuj To!”. She is also the main organiser of this competition. She gained practical experience in accounting, taxation, and auditing in the BDO auditing company where she worked as an Assistant Auditor.

doc. Ing. Veronika Solilová, Ph.D.

Veronika Solilová graduated at the Faculty of Business and Economics of Mendel University in Brno, the doctoral study programme in Finance in 2010 and in 2021 she was appointed as Assoc. Prof. in Finance at the Prague University of Economics and Business. Currently she has been working at the Faculty of Finance and Accounting of the Prague University of Economics and Business, Department of Public Finance. Her expertise is transfer pricing, worldwide corporate taxation issues, environmental taxes, fiscal policies, coordination and fight against the tax evasion/tax fraud. In 2021 was also appointed as an expert for transfer pricing by the Ministry of Justice. She is author and co-author many professional and scientific articles, monographs published by Wolters Kluwer, Springer, IBFD publishing houses and scientific journals.